

A story of taste and colour

Gautier Seeds offers a high-end experience when it comes to tomato flavour : varieties The Brunettes stand out thanks to their extraordinary flavour: an explosion of aromas combined with just the right balance of sweet and sour.

“ Our breeders are constantly increasing and enriching taste diversity in our varieties. Taste is an integral part of our varietal selection process. We assign a rating of aromatic intensity to all the tomatoes we taste. These systematic evaluations help us to choose varieties based on the taste profiles we wish to develop.

The Brunettes range is a perfect example of this desire to offer consumers tomatoes with exceptional flavour. ”
